Dear Lisa

I'm so sure I can't sleep and I'm going over what people said. Stearns said he only smoked weed. I'm looking at the Post Standard. SUN, OCT. 5, 2014 (THUMPER STEEN KILLER AND BRAGGART) if he is out HIGH ON COCAINE I'M OVER 6' TALL & weigh over 200 LBS. why everyone keeps saying he only smokes weed is beyond me. I'm sure the toxicology report from his blood test in prison or if it was taken within 30 days or so will show cocaine in his system.

Now as for my trip. These two assholes were jerks. so I got right in. They started their bullshit right away. So, when they hit the gas I said, 'wow' these cars fly. The driver says, 'NOT REALLY.' so I said, 'Well, I really don't have much to compare it to except it's pretty close to the speed in which I flew down them court house steps.' I thought they were going to blow a gasket. HA. all they did was piss and moan about everything, especially a rookie who made officer or rookie of the year. They don't know why they weren't chosen. Because this officer BLUNT I think was only on the force for 4 months. I said, 'here's a theory.' maybe he's done more in 4 months than both you guys have done in your entire careers. I could see them start cringing. I have getting under their skin. We had to wait 1 hour to get into Auburn all they was but bitch about how Fup these prison guards are. once inside one of them is removing my shackles & cuffs. The a-hole ask me to reach around my back to unlock the chain, expecting to be shot if I did. I said, 'you get paid too much for me to do your job.' he said, 'suck my dick.' I said, 'before I suggest if you that lovely you might try FARMERS ALMANAC.COM tell these guys what you really think about them.' HA HA there was 4 or 5

Sgt's me waiting in a 40 year retirement who they all wished me luck before and after I came back. was standing so close to me after my coment I think if the SHERIFF took a swing at me they would have both been knock out. They couldn't get away from me fast enough. I'm back in the HONOR BLOCK some cell with my neighbor who's wife is a paralegal & advocate. She's going to draw me up a last will & testament just incase. I know you will continue with what you started if you allowed for my vindication and the beneficences will be given names and amount to be allocated to ~~to~~ said people according to the settlements.

Oh by the way. If you get a chance could you ask your paralegal Miss Tori if she's ~~of~~ ^{back} ~~there~~ She can always drop me a line and I ~~will~~ ~~not~~ ~~get~~ ~~will~~ keep her out late and I'll get her back by curfew and I'll do my best to make her laugh. Everyone deserves to escape reality for just a few minutes. Oh and let her know I'm sorry But, I'm not looking for romance. I have someone waiting for me on the other side. I believe it will come abot sooner rather then later. I'm fine and welcome it. People should not think of it is a sad occasion rather they should be happy cause I will be happy for a change. We have been brain washed into fearing death. When an earthly we never die. We take a break and get into a new car, vehicle, body and learn someone. one thing I havint figured out yet is why we don't remember our last ride. I was told along time ago that I am a very new soul. maybe that accounts for a life time of loneliness and misery. I will do better the next time we meet. But, We won't remember. I thank for all you & your crew are doing. regardless how this turns out. Judge Brandt & Judge King are the only two judges I've met that I will call HONORABLE. See you at the 3RD.
Stay True Innocent.
